ABOUT

Profile and expertise

Ulrike Mönnich has many years of experience and specialises as a lawyer in insurance, reinsurance and liability law. She primarily advises national and international (re)insurance companies, insurance brokers and industrial clients on insurance and liability law matters. She also advises on insurance supervisory law and regulatory issues relating to the insurance business. She represents her clients both in and out of court and in arbitration proceedings. Recently, she has advised and represented her clients on the following topics, among others:

- Coverage disputes in primary and reinsurance business
- Cross-border insurance business ("FoS") within the EU and between Liechtenstein and Switzerland, as well as insurance activities via domestic branches of foreign insurers
- Impact of the new Data Protection Act (DSG) on foreign insurance companies operating in Switzerland
- Partial revision of the Insurance Supervision Act (VAG)
- Advice on international insurance programmes
- Liability of company directors (D&O claims)
- Distribution of insurance products (requirements under the new Insurance Supervision Act, cross-border issues)
- Portfolio transfers
